MILLION ARMENIANS WERE MASACRED

Only 200,000 Out of 1,200,000 Remain in Turkey and the Rest May Be Killed During War.

[By Associated Press.]
Tiflis, Trans-Caucasia, Oct. 22.—The estimate is made that of the 1,200,000 Armenians in Turkey before the war there remain not more than 200,000. This residue may disappear before the end of the war by the Turkish policy of extermination.

The figures are based on the estimate of the Armenian patriarch at Constantinople that 550,000 Armenians have been killed or enslaved. Two hundred thousand Armenians are believed to have fled to Russia.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The Turkish embassy Thursday issued an official report from the general Ottoman headquarters charging that many atrocities have been committed against the Moslems in the Caucasus by Russian troops assisted by Greeks and Armenians. These bands are accused of attacking many women and plucking the cheeks of babies so they started to death. Tortures of the Middle Ages are said to have been revived.

MEXICANS ATTACK MAN AND WIFE

Both Severely Wounded, But Two Mexicans Killed in Hand to Hand Fight.

[By Associated Press.]
San Marcos, Tex., Oct. 22.—Alfred Wilkie and his wife were attacked by three Mexicans at their home near Martindale late yesterday. Both were wounded, but killed two of the Mexicans in a hand to hand fight. The other fled. Both the Wilkies are expected to recover. Wilkie asserted the Mexicans were hired to assassinate him.

"How," asked the captain of the train robbers, "did you manage to go through so many passengers alone?" "I had only," rejoined the ordinary brigand, "to carry a whisk broom in my hand and they suspected nothing." Puck.

MORE TROOPS ORDERED TO THE TEXAS BORDER

Twenty-Eighth Regiment Now at Dallas Will Go to Harlingen—Additional Protection to Be Given Small Posts—Border Situation Civil and Not Military.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Oct. 22.—The Twenty-eighth Infantry has been ordered to Harlingen, Texas, on account of the renewal of bandit raids on the Texas border. The Twenty-eighth Infantry is now at Dallas giving military exhibitions at the State Fair. The troops will be used to give added protection at small posts, such as Ojo del Agua.

The Twenty-third Infantry, now at Jacksonville, Fla., at the National rifle matches, will return to Galveston to be held in readiness for use on the border.

The officials explained the army is doing all it legally can to check the raids. They said the situation is not a military one, but civil, and under Texas jurisdiction. Unless the Governor formally requested Texas intervention, there would be no authority for martial law.

Troops may repel attacks, but are even now exceeding a rigid interpretation of their powers when they aid in the pursuit of bandits.

The Department of Justice will detail more agents along the Mexican border immediately to help meet the raids and prevent violations of the arms embargo.

Attorney General Gregory and President Wilson conferred over the situation.

At Dallas the Twenty-eighth Infantry expects to entrain for Harlingen tomorrow morning.

TEXAS BORDER QUIET.
[By Associated Press.]
Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 22.—The border was reported quiet last night.

General Lopez, the Carranza commander at Matamoros, today promised to make an active campaign against bandits on the Mexican side of the river.

The Carranza consul here announces that General Lopez requests more troops.

CARRANZA TROOPS KILLED.
[By Associated Press.]
Topolobampo, Mexico, Oct. 22.—A hundred and fifty Yaqui Indians ambushed and killed forty-four Carranza soldiers near the United Sugar Company's plantation at Los Mochis. The Carranza troops had been sent from Los Mochis to fight them.
